NATIONAL ENGINEERING INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Work on developing a better information system for engineering information is continuing under the auspices of the Council on Library Resources despite the recent resignation of its President, David Penniman. He stated that future activities along this line will be under the direction of the Council on Engineering Education, with CLR support.

GREAT LAKES REGIONAL CONFERENCE

An interesting array of speakers and educational courses have been lined up for SLA's Great Lakes Regional Conference to be held in Chicago on March 22-25, 1995. Six pre-conference education programs will be held on March 22, along with a one-day forum entitled: "The Future of Research for the Special Library Community." Pre-conference courses and conference sessions cover the gamut of topics of current interest, ranging from CD-ROM networking to the Internet to marketing of library services.

For more information, contact Rebecca Corliss at (312) 245-8583 or Janice Keeler at jkeeler@s.andersen.com or write to: Great Lakes Regional Conference III, P.O. Box 06167, Chicago, IL 60606.
